

WT	EO	GD
I can recognise the words Bible , New Testament and Old Testament	I can say simply what the Bible, the New Testament and the Old Testament are.	I can correctly explain what the Bible, the New Testament and the Old Testament are, giving some detail.
I can give a few details about the Noah story	I can retell* in any form the Noah story	I can retell the Noah story and say why it was written
I know the Noah story has a meaning	I can give at least one meaning of the story	I can give several meanings of the Noah story
I recognise the word Covenant	I can explain simply what the word Covenant means	I can give a more detailed description of the word Covenant.
I can say what a baptism is	I can describe some things that happen during a baptism	I can describe what happens during a baptism in
I can name at least one symbol of Baptism	I can name several symbols of Baptism	I can explain what some of these symbols mean
I can say with some help what 'Laudato Si' is	I can describe very simply what 'Laudato Si' is about	I can explain what a steward is.
I can name at least one person who is helping to take care of our world.	I can give at least two examples of young people who are taking care of our world	I can describe at one project in detail where someone is trying to be a good Steward.

Note: In general pupils in the working towards category will receive greater support or their response will be consistently more limited)

- For working towards they would say Laudato Si. is a book written by Pope Francis. For expected they would need to say a little more about how it talks about taking care of the world.
- *Retell in any form includes orally telling you the story, sequencing the story correctly etc

Please note I haven't included the respond activities here. This is not because they are not important, they are but perhaps better just to do them rather than assess them.

I can statements for year 3 pupils. Year2 Content, Branch 1

WT	EO	GD
I can say simply what the Bible, the New Testament and the Old Testament are.	I can correctly explain what the Bible, the New Testament and the Old Testament are giving some detail.	I can correctly explain what the Bible, the New Testament and the Old Testament are giving a good explanation
I can retell in any form the Noah story	I can retell the Noah story and say simply why it was written	I can say in detail why the story was written
I can give at least one meaning of the story	I can give several meanings of the Noah story	I can say with reasons which I think is the most important meaning of the story
I can explain simply what the word Covenant means	I can give a more detailed description of the word Covenant.	I can say what the Covenant is in the Noah Story
I can describe some things that happen during a baptism	I can describe what happens during a baptism	I can describe a baptism in detail and in sequence
I can name several symbols of Baptism	I can explain what some of these symbols mean	I can give a good description of at least three signs or symbols in baptism and make a connection with the Noah story for at least one.
I can describe very simply what 'Laudato Si' is about	I can explain what a steward is.	I can say what Pope Francis said about Noah and why he thought the story was important.
I can give at least two examples of young people who are taking care of our world	I can describe at one project in detail where someone is trying to be a good Steward.	I can say why it is important to be a good steward.