St George's Catholic School is a happy, caring school with a hard working team of professionals. Good teamwork and high quality teaching are essential requirements for the successful candidate. Visits to the school are welcome and encouraged. St George's is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of our children and expects all staff and volunteers to share this. Appointments to these posts will be subject to satisfactory references and an enhanced DBS check.

The governors are looking for an inspirational experienced EYFS teacher to join our school community from September 2024 and play a role in the next stage of our development. Early recruitment would mean the appointed person would be able to have an input in the redesign of the Early Years indoor and outdoor environment. Job sharing would be considered.

The school are also looking at taking a pre-school under the umbrella of the school in the future and as this would be part of the EYFS a TLR would be payable in recognition of this.

Salary Range: MPS/UPS
